

SETTING THE TABLE

A formal table setting often includes: a salad fork, a dinner fork, a spreader (butter knife), a dinner knife, a bread and butter plate, a soup spoon, a dessert spoon, a dinner napkin, and wine glass, a water glass, and another drinking glass.

Two versions are below:

GOOD TIP TO REMEMBER: work from the outside-in: using the outermost utensils first, working inward toward the center of the place setting, course by course.